

Benefits to Becoming a Member of The Arc of the Piedmont

The Arc of the Piedmont is one of over 700 chapters of The Arc, which has over 140,000 members nationwide.

You become part of the largest grassroots movement to promote and protect the rights of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

You connect to others who share your beliefs and commitment.

You have first access to indispensable local, state, and national information, through publications and resources.

You stay up-to-date about important organization news and valuable information available from The Arc of the United States, The Arc of Virginia, and The Arc of the Piedmont.

You add to The Arc of the Piedmont's strong voice in sharing concerns about public policy advocacy and systems change at the state and local levels that affect people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families.

You attend our workshops for free and receive significant discounts to attend state and national conferences, conventions and special trainings.

You also become a member of The Arc of the United States and The Arc of Virginia, which qualifies you to receive a number of benefits, including:

- Marsh Affinity Group Services, offering quality protection plans from health coverage to affordable life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance.
- Liberty Mutual, providing a group insurance program that comes with special savings and benefits on auto, home and renters insurance.
- US Bank, offering members The Arc Select Rewards Visa® Card. You can earn rewards for yourself and support The Arc with every purchase.

You have an opportunity to become actively involved in the vital work of The Arc of the Piedmont by serving on a committee or on the Board of Directors.

You can vote on matters and elect Board members at The Arc of the Piedmont's Annual Meeting.

Your membership dues are tax deductible.

You change lives.
